Company information:

Additional Lengths introducing new product range □□ As an award winning hair products company expansion is key, so this year has seen the introduction of remi cachet, which is a luxury double drawn hair extension which will be one of our main goals to promote, also introduced is the new brand ambassador of the hair extension range Sam Faiers, as many people know Sam Faiers as one of the faces of "The Only Way Is Essex" and now has come to Additional Lengths to promote the hair extension range and also featuring in the hair extension guide videos. Continuing on the expansion, Additional Lengths have increased the size of the stand in comparison from last year, now using an island stand, so all visitors can buy the products from stand F215.
